Extension Service, addressed the Council to thank them for reconsidering the funds for the Money Management Program.

Frieda Wascher, representing Habitat for Humanity thanked the Council for the property at 806 N. Harvey.

Ms. Wascher also addressed the topic of loud noises from automobiles and whether or not this is covered by ordinances.

Ruth Wyman, representing El Centro Por Trabajadores, addressed the Council to request social service grant funds for that organization.

Alderman Whelan addressed the Council to state that he spoke with representatives from the Adkins Group, who were very appreciative of the help they received from volunteers that picked up debris from the tornado from their property.

The Adkins Group stated that they might consider naming a street after the Douglas family when they are developing more streets.

Alderman Whelan stated that some of the farms within the City still have debris and the farmers are concerned about getting into the fields to plant.

Alderman Whelan mentioned a letter one of his constituents received from the Environmental Management Division which he viewed as unfriendly and suggested that the City might be more tactful in its approach.
