SUBJECT: AN ORDINANCE APPROVING A SECOND AMENDMENT TO A CERTAIN URBANA HOME CONSORTIUM COMMUNITY HOUSING DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE CITY OF URBANA AND HOMESTEAD CORPORATION
(Rental Project – FY2001-2002)

Description

Included on the agenda for the June 9 meeting of the City of Urbana Committee of the Whole is a second amendment to an Urbana HOME Consortium CHDO Agreement between Homestead Corporation and the City of Urbana. The amendment would reduce the number of rental units Homestead will acquire from six (6) to four (4) units.

Issues

The issue is whether the Urbana City Council should approve the proposed second amendment to Homestead's CHDO Agreement.

Background

In December 2001, the City of Urbana entered into a CHDO Agreement with Homestead Corporation to use $16,770 in HOME CHDO funds and $100,000 in Urbana HOME funds for the development of single-family rental properties within Urbana and Champaign by December 31, 2002. The agreement called for the acquisition of one (1) property in Champaign using the CHDO funds and two (2) in Urbana using the Urbana HOME funds.

In December 2002, the City of Urbana amended the CHDO Agreement with Homestead Corporation. The amendment contained two provisions:

1. Homestead Corporation was provided additional time to complete their purchase of single-family rental properties. The initial CHDO Agreement contained a termination date of December 31, 2002. The amendment provided a revised date of June 30, 2003.
2. The number of single-family homes to be purchased was increased from two (2) to six (6) single-family homes in Urbana.

To date, Homestead has purchased one (1) property in Champaign and four (4) in Urbana. There is $35,350 of Urbana HOME funds remaining to develop additional single-family rental properties within Urbana.

Homestead Corporation has indicated that the remaining funds are not sufficient to purchase two (2) additional units in Urbana to meet the provisions of the amended agreement. This is due to limited availability and escalating costs for four bedroom single-family homes and changes to their financing arrangements.

Homestead has further indicated that their banking arrangements have been modified and are not as favorable as the arrangements that provided financing for the earlier purchases. The earlier acquisitions were structured as homebuyer-type mortgages and as such were provided favorable rates and down payment requirements.

Homestead has indicated that their new lending arrangements will view their rental property acquisitions as commercial loan activity and as such require a higher down payment and less favorable loan terms. Specifically, the new loans would be 20-year term rather than 30-year term that they secured previously. Homestead indicated that all their future acquisitions would be viewed as commercial loans, regardless of the specific lender.

Further, because Homestead offers lower rents than what they could collect, the lender has additional concerns about the viability of the business plan and therefore needs a larger down payment to make the loan bankable.

This proposed second amendment to Homestead's CHDO Agreement would change the number of units to be purchased in Urbana from six (6) to four (4) single-family rental properties in Urbana and for the balance of funds (approximately $35,000) be returned to the Consortium's HOME account.

These returned funds could be used for other HOME eligible projects, such as completing a house at the 914 Eads Street lot that was recently returned to the City by the Urbana School District. Use of these funds will require an amendment to the Annual Action Plan.

Options

The options available to the City of Urbana include the following:

1. Approve the proposed second amendment to the Agreement.
2. Approve the proposed second amendment to the Agreement, with additional provisions.
3. Do not approve the proposed second amendment to the Agreement.

Fiscal Impacts

This second amendment would not have any direct fiscal impact as these monies have been previously budgeted. Funds returned to the Consortium's HOME account could be used for other HOME eligible activities in Urbana.

Recommendations

The HOME Consortium Technical Committee (Urbana, Champaign and Champaign County staff) has reviewed the request for the second amendment. The consensus of the Committee was that Homestead has exceeded the initial number of units to be purchased and recommended approval of the amendment.

The Community Development Commission discussed this item at their April 22 and May 27 meetings. While a quorum was not at the May 27 meeting, the Commission members present expressed favorable comments on the matter and agreed with staff's recommendation.

Staff recommends approval of the second amendment to an Urbana HOME Consortium CHDO Agreement between Homestead Corporation and the City of Urbana.

- (d) Insurance Proceeds. If Homestead receives insurance proceeds for any damage or destruction to the Property prior to the expiration of the Affordability Period, Homestead shall apply such proceeds to the repair of such damage or destruction, if practicable.
- (e) Cooperation. Homestead understands and agrees that Homestead shall cooperate at all times with the City of Urbana and Homestead's contractors and will do all acts necessary to facilitate the Project.

8. CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS. Homestead shall be responsible for (i) construction means, methods, techniques, or sequences of construction, (ii) procedures for safety precautions in connection with the Project, (iii) selection of the contractor, (iv) the contractor's work, and (v) the contractor's failure to carry out the Project.

On an annual basis the City shall review and approve rents proposed by Homestead for utilities and services to be paid by the tenant. Homestead shall recalculate the maximum monthly rents annually and may change such maximum rents as changes in the applicable gross rent amount, the income adjustments, or the monthly allowance for utilities and services warrant, within the limits allowed by the Regulations. Any increases are subject to provisions of outstanding leases, and in any event, Homestead must provide tenants of the unit not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice before implementing any increase in rent.
- (c) Certification of Income. On forms provided by the City, Homestead shall obtain from each family applying for the unit in the Project, prior to admission into the Project, a certification of income (the "Certification"), and at such intervals thereafter as required by the City, but not less than annually during the Affordability Period, a recertification of such income (the "Recertification") from each such Family. - (d) Occupancy and Rent Limitation. Subject to termination in the event of foreclosure or transfer in lieu of foreclosure as provided in Section 92.252(a)(5) of the Regulations, the occupancy and rent limitation provisions of this Section 7 shall remain in effect for a period of ten (10) years from the date of "project completion" (as such term is defined in the Regulations), such period to be incorporated in the Mortgage on the Property, or in other documents, to be recorded as the City may approve, in its sole discretion, as restrictive covenants running with, binding, and burdening the Project. At the City's request Homestead shall execute a written memorandum, prepared by the City, which memorandum shall memorialize said date of project completion and the foregoing Affordability Period, provided that any waiver by the City of its right to prepare or record any such memorandum and any failure by Homestead to execute and deliver the same shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the occupancy and rent restriction provisions of this Section 9. Homestead acknowledges and agrees that the Affordability Period shall apply notwithstanding any contrary affordability period set forth in the Regulations, unless the affordability period set forth in the Regulations is longer. In the event of a foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure relating to any other loan encumbering the Project, the City shall have the right, but not the obligation, to acquire the Project prior to such foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure to preserve the foregoing affordability provisions as provided in Section 92.252 of the Regulations.

10. RECORDS. At the request of the City, Homestead shall furnish such records and information as required by the City in connection with the maintenance, occupancy, and physical condition of the Property.

11. INDEMNIFICATION.

Project, in any claim or suit brought by a person or third party against the City or the City's officers, agents, employees, or servants.

- (b) If a claim or suit is brought against the City or the City's officers, agents, employees, or servants, for which Homestead is responsible pursuant to Subsection (a) of this Section 11, Homestead shall defend, at Homestead's cost and expense, any suit or claim, and shall pay any resulting claims, judgments, damages, losses, costs, expenses, or settlements against the City or the City's officers, agents, employees, or servants.

12. VIOLATION OF AGREEMENT. Upon violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement by Homestead, the City shall give written notice thereof to Homestead, as provided in Section 14 hereof. If such violation is not corrected to the satisfaction of the City within thirty (30) days after the date such notice is given, or within such further time as the City in its sole discretion permits, the City may declare a default under this Agreement, effective on the date of such declaration of default and notice thereof to Homestead, and upon such default the City may exercise such rights or remedies as may be available to the City, at law or in equity.

The City's remedies are cumulative, and the exercise of one remedy shall not be deemed an election of remedies nor foreclose the exercise of any other remedy by the City. No waiver of any breach of this Agreement by the City shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other breach or a subsequent breach. If the City fails to exercise, or delays in exercising, any right under this Agreement, such failure or delay shall not be deemed a waiver of such right or any other right.

13. AMENDMENT. This Agreement shall not be altered or amended except in a written amendment signed by the parties.

16. SURVIVAL OF OBLIGATIONS. Homestead's obligations, as set forth in this Agreement, or the application thereof to any circumstance, shall survive the disbursement of the funds, and Homestead shall continue to cooperate with the City and furnish any documents, exhibits, or showings required.
17. CONSTRUCTION OF AGREEMENT.
 - (a) Partial Invalidity. If any term, covenant, condition, or provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any circumstance, shall, at any time or to any extent, be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application thereof to circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each term, covenant, condition, and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
