SUBJECT: CHDO Operating Funds Agreement for Homestead Corporation

Description

On the agenda for the August 11 meeting of the Committee of the Whole is a HOME CHDO agreement to pledge $31,783 to the Homestead Corporation for administration and operating costs associated with their continued operation and new development of housing projects.

Issues

The issues are whether City Council should approve an agreement between the city and Homestead Corporation regarding administration and operating expenses. City Council approval is required for the agreement.

Background

The HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME Program) allows up to 5% of a grantee's funding to be used for the administration/operating costs of Community Housing Development Organizations (CHDOs). In FY2003-2004, the Urbana HOME Consortium was awarded $1,178,315, of which $58,915 can be used in this manner.

The Urbana City Council has approved the FY2003-2004 Annual Action Plan (AAP), which identifies activities to be funded under the HOME Program and the Community Development Block Grant Program. HOME funds were allocated in the plan to the Homestead Corporation for $31,783 in administration/operating funds. The CHDO operating funds are generally used for costs that can't be attributed to a specific program or project, such as salaries, benefits, insurance, office supplies and equipment, professional services, rents, etc... Neither the City nor the CHDOs will be required to match these funds.

Homestead Corporation became a CHDO in FY1996-1997 while they developed their Single-Room Occupancy facility. Their primary focus is affordable rental housing. As such, they have also purchased 9 single-family homes throughout the Urbana and Champaign area with the help of HOME funds. The single-family units are leased to larger sized families that receive Section 8 rental assistance. Homestead is also currently developing the final homes within the City of Urbana's Eads at Lincoln Subdivision. Staff will bring an agreement for Homestead's rental property development to the Commission at a later date.

Options

1. Approve the agreement as written
2. Approve the agreement with amendments.
3. Do not approve the agreement.

Fiscal Impacts

There would be no fiscal impact to the city budget. Funds for Homestead have been budgeted in Fiscal Year 2003-2004.

Recommendations

At their July 22 meeting, the Urbana Community Development Commission recommended this agreement for city council approval. Community Development staff also recommend city council approval of this agreement.
