RE: Renaming a Portion of Tatman Court
East Urbana Industrial Park

INTRODUCTION

The Urbana City Council recently reviewed a final plat for the second phase of the East Urbana Industrial Park subdivision, which will accommodate a new radio station, along with other platted lots for future development. Within this final plat was an east-west extension of Tatman Court, resulting in a new cul de sac (see attached plan). In order to avoid confusion for the public, it has become necessary to rename the north-south stub of what is currently named Tatman Court. It is recommended, per the recommendation of the developer, that this north-south stub street be renamed "Industrial Circle." There are no other streets in the City of Urbana, or in the Champaign, Urbana, and Savoy community with the name Industrial Circle.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that An Ordinance Changing A Street Name (Tatman Court to Industrial Circle) be approved.
