TO: Urbana Public Arts Commission

FROM: Lisa Hatchadoorian, Public Arts Coordinator

DATE: July 8, 2014

SUBJECT: Fanfare by Shawn Morin- Acquisition to the Permanent Collection of the City of Urbana

Background

The Urbana Public Arts Program and Commission was established by the City Council, in April 2008, to foster a city where all residents—emerging artists, established artists, and “non-artists” alike—may engage with the arts and where artists thrive and are valued. Additionally, art, in all its many forms, is essential to the vitality of our city, bolstering quality of life, economic development, public safety, academic performance, and social tolerance. Furthermore, the Public Arts Commission and Program was tasked to integrate art into the urban environment. Common Goals for the Urbana City Council at the time of the creation of the Public Arts Program ordinance (2008-03-013) included a stipulation to develop a strong public collection of artworks representing diverse communities, artistic styles and disciplines.

Duties, as stipulated in the ordinance of 2008 (2008-03-013), designate that the Public Arts Commission will submit, for confirmation, proposals to the Mayor and City Council confirming the receipt, purchase, maintenance, dispossession, and de-accession of works of art to be permanently placed on municipal property.

Fanfare, by Shawn Morin (Washington, D.C.), has been on continuous display, near the corner of Elm and Race Streets in downtown Urbana since 2010. As part of our Urbana Sculpture Program, a selection of public sculpture from local, regional and national artists are installed and rotated out in and around the downtown Urbana area every two years. Recently, a generous offer was made to the City of Urbana by the artist Shawn Morin, regarding the purchase of Fanfare by the City of Urbana for the permanent collection, in lieu of leasing the sculpture for an additional two years.

Discussion

As previously mentioned, Fanfare has been installed as part of downtown, at its current location on Elm and Race since 2010. In the past four years, it has become a much-valued and integral part of the downtown landscape and streetscape. Normally, sculptures rotate out every two years, but this particular sculpture has been such a good fit for its location, amplifies the character of the neighborhood, beautifies the downtown area and is well-liked by the community, that it has become a part of downtown life. The original two-year lease from 2010-12 has turned into four years with the additional possibility of leasing two more years from 2014-2016. Staff was laying the groundwork to lease the sculpture for an additional two years (from 2014-16), making the lease period six years in total, with the possibility of purchase after this next lease cycle. The artist did stipulate that at the end of the next lease period in 2016, the sculpture would either have to be returned to the artist or purchased. Consequently, after this communication about the next leasing period from 2014-16, the artist then contacted staff with a proposal for purchase of the sculpture at a drastically reduced price.

Budget

The original value of the sculpture and starting purchase price is $15,000. After four years of leasing, the balance due on the sculpture is $10,500 as the artist has applied the lease cost to the overall price of the sculpture. The new asking price for Fanfare as per an email from the artist on June 17, 2014, stated the new purchase price as $4,500. For the FY14-15, $2,000 had already been allocated towards the lease of Fanfare, so the resulting purchase cost to the City of Urbana is $2,500. $2,500 is needed in additional funding for full purchase of Fanfare for the permanent collection of the City of Urbana.

Value of Sculpture/Original Purchase Price	$15,000
Balance due on Sculpture after 4 years of leasing	$10,500 (the artist applied the lease cost to the overall price of the sculpture)
New asking purchase price from artist (06/14)	$4,500
Amount of funds in FY 14-15 approved program plan and budget towards lease of sculpture	$2,000
Additional funding needed for full purchase of sculpture	$2,500

Resources

Public Art Projects TIF ENC	$2,500
-----------------------------	---------

The funding for this sculpture will come out of encumbered TIF fund overages from FY 13-14 and not from the $75,100 budget that was approved and passed by City Council for FY 14-15.

Recommendation

Staff is recommending that the Public Arts Commission vote on the acquisition of Fanfare, by Shawn Morin, as part of the permanent collection of the City of Urbana.
