Update

Arts in the Schools is now accepting applications for the 2016 cycle. The guideline and application package were released on August 10, and deadline for proposals is October 2. Finalists will be selected in October 9, and the selected few will need to submit their full application by November 6.

The grant program has been promoted with social media posts, the Public Arts e-newsletter, and a press release.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Public Arts Commission share any comments or suggestions that they might have.
